Champagne

In an attempt to enter the 21st Century

I have had many requests to receive the catalogue via email rather than by post (1,400 to date). It is much quicker and far more efficient, you have the ability to read it on the move, enlarge the images and keep up to date with the Gallery news, exhibitions and art fairs.

If you do please email: mail@cfag.co.uk

With your postal address and your email address.

And I will then transfer you across.

Thanks very much.

The paintings may be viewed and purchased prior to the exhibition opening
